WASHINGTONVILLE LOCAL GLEANINGS

By Peter M. Herold.

Father Time is ever with us. And his stern, relentless power governs all the passing moments. Sad or happy be the hour; But methinks 'tis when we're saddened When our hearts with anguish swell, That we shrink to hear them whisper: "You must wait, for Time will tell."

Jos. Cox spent the past two weeks placing more glass on his greenhouse. Miss Amelia Guchard is visiting her sister, Mrs. Geo. Phillips, at Kyle's Corner.

Master Floyd Brain was 9 years old Sunday and a big dinner for relatives was the result.

J. D. Smith and wife and J. D. Feicht and wife were in Youngstown Saturday on business and pleasure.

The ball game and the band festival will likely draw a big crowd into town next Saturday afternoon and evening.

The Bucher club met at the home of Frank Spear and wife Saturday night, when C. H. Weikart and wife were given the honors.

Mrs. Harry Roth and family are spending this week at Cambridge Springs, and will be joined by her husband on Sunday.

Rev. C. R. Isley attended the National Ekklesia of the Phi Gamma Delta (Greek letters) society held at Niagara Falls, N. Y., August 13-15.

Saturday was a pleasant day to be out of doors, so that Matt Simpson and D. Williams saw the ball game from the shade trees on the school lawn.

Mrs. Frank Poache of Quincy, Mich., stopped off here Thursday evening to see her cousin, Mrs. S. J. Taylor, when on her way home from Niagara Falls.

The Mahoning Dispatch has more readers, more local news, more details of ball games and council proceedings than any paper that reaches this village.

Manager George Dunn is well pleased with the good work accomplished by his ball team in Saturday's game, and Mr. Dunn's good management is generally conceded.

Potts' Patriot admits that Mayor Hinchliffe is mayor of Lisbon, Wells-ville, East Liverpool and Salem. At least Hinchliffe has the confidence of the Civic League of Columbiana county.

Chas. A. Stouffer, Miss Sadie Spear, F. I. Bilger, Burt Smith, Wm. Needham, John Brady, Jr., Fred Bossett, Ivan Davis, Ray and Wm. Stouffer were among the crowd who attended the ball game at Southern park last Sunday.

Harry Gager and wife of Salem spent Sunday at the home of Joseph Barrow and wife. Mr. Gager is one of the West Virginia Gas Co., and will be needed here when J. E. Gilbert gets the street lamps ready to connect with the gas main.

Harvey Crowell, a seminarian from Wittenberg college, preached in the Lutheran church Sunday forenoon upon the theme of Healing Leprosy.

At the evening service Rev. Isley preached upon Love and Friendship greater than that between David and Jonathan. There will be preaching here in both churches the last Sunday of August.

The Lutheran and Methodist Sunday schools will hold a union picnic at Shelton's Grove Wednesday, August 4. Among the attractions will be a game of ball between the young ladies of both schools. Two umpires will be needed, one from each school, and the indications are that the pastors will assume the hazardous task.

These gentlemen of the cloth sometimes become very fraternal in their guesses, and the danger to a square deal lies in overdoing justice with generosity. A good time is anticipated.

Prof. J. M. May of the Kinsman schools, who has been chosen to succeed Prof. John W. Moore as superintendent of the Leetonia schools, is a native of Carroll county, is about 35 years of age and his better half is from near Delroy.

Prof. May will take a position in the schools in Youngstown. There were 22 applicants for the Leetonia schools and it required 13 ballots to make a choice. The board of education made no mistake in the selection of Mr. May. He is not only a good educator, but he has also good executive ability.

The best and most enjoyable game on the home diamond this year was played Saturday afternoon, when a gentlemanly crowd of young men came in from East Palestine. On ordinary occasions they would have defeated us, but our boys had a little practice the day before, and a slight change was made in the lineup. Both teams played well and it required the 9th inning to decide. Our boys did so well in the first half that they got "off the trolley" when the visitors "cranked up" for four scores. The visitors were so well treated that they want to play another game next Saturday. The crowd was large and orderly, excepting one Jay who coached for both clubs by calling for the "sky hooks" on all high balls. Atkinson did not score. Carl Weikart is an expert behind the bat. "Germany" played well at Stouffer on first. Outfielders Daniels, Sweeney and Moff excelled each other. Next Saturday's game will likely have music between innings, and followed by a band festival at night. Below is the lineup of the last game and the score by innings:

E. Palestine, 5. Washington's, 6. Atkinson, 1. Sweeney, 2. Stouffer, 3. Williams, 4. Daniels, 5. Pugh, 6. Moff, 7. Daniels, 8. Ward, 9. Sweeney, 10. Williams, 11. Daniels, 12. Williams, 13.
